Teens learn how to stand out as leaders in the Lead-A-Way program. They practice positive communication skills, collaborative teamwork, and integrity in activities and team projects.

This program emphasizes using leadership traits to affect positive change in your community.

Program includes a field-trip to historic Paulsdale the home of suffragist and women's rights leader Alice Stokes Paul (1885-1977).

Thank you to the Judith Glick Buckman Fund for the Future for providing a scholarship for a participant to attend Lead-A-Way.
